

Earth Emails Final
4/June/06

Throughout the performance email communications are projected onto screens mounted over the stage.

Email 1

B: Hi Robin
A: hey alex

B: R U okay?
A: not sure

B: What's going on?

A: feel like i'm sleep-walking sleep-running nothing getting done
no time. Paralyzed

B: It's not just you
Everything is broken!
What can we do?
A: the world was wrecked when I got here
I didn't do it.
why should I fix it?

B: Well, you ARE part of it..
A: you can't live in the world
without wrecking it.

B: Do you really feel that way? (sad face emoticon)

A: i try to look like i care but i really don't.

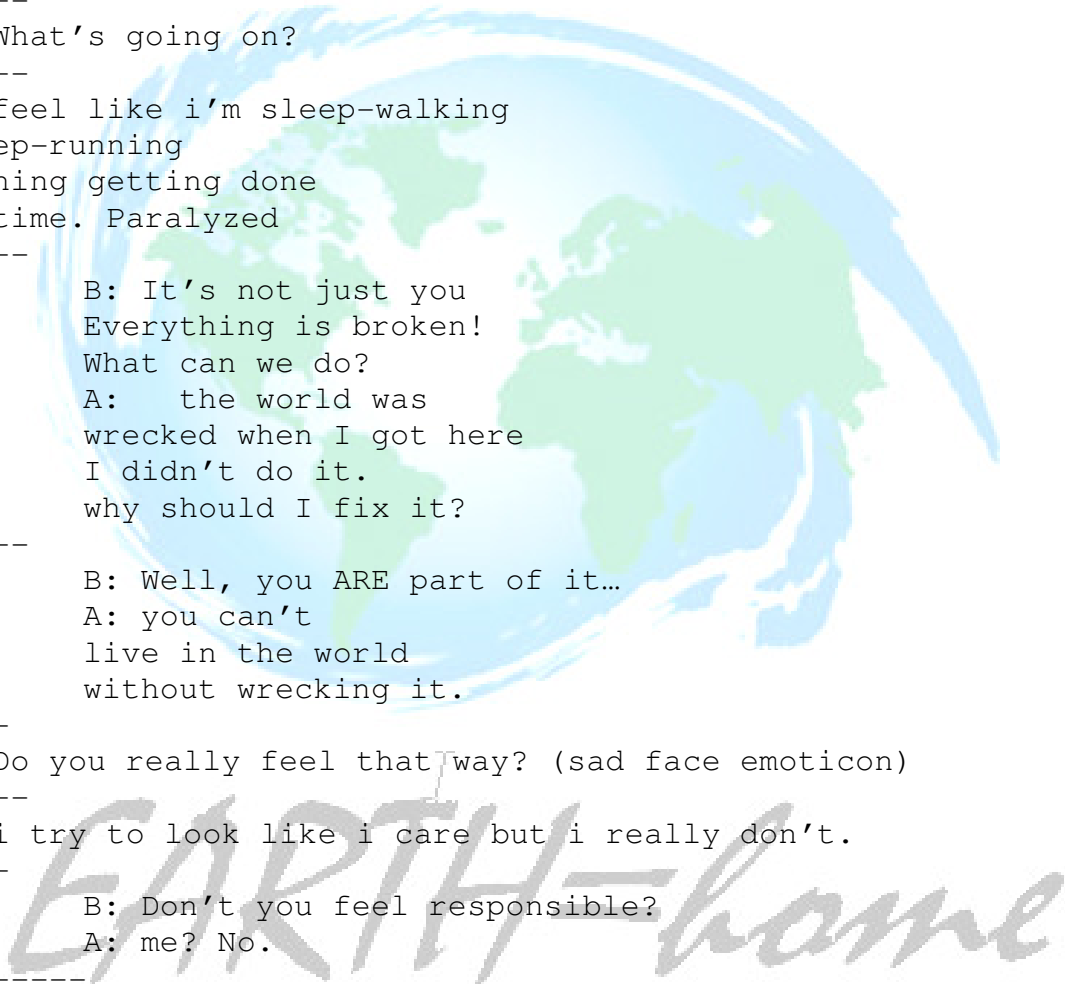

B: Don't you feel responsible?
A: me? No.

A: the future is not my problem.

B: Waiting for God or the government to come and save you?

A: hey, if stuff's gonna happen
its gonna happen.
(frustrated emoticon)

B: R U ok?
A: it feels slowly like i don't matter anymore.

Email 2

B: I'm sick of stuff
I want to own only one pair of pants.

A: well my drawers are jam packed.
maybe i'll just junk it all...

B: Everything is disposable and it's piling up.
We trash everything.
Not just land, air, water,
What about headspace?

B: We're blasted with ads,
'You don't have ENOUGH', enough SEX, muscles, STUFF get in there, get more, 'WIN!'

B: And there's more--

A: i don't want to know
i don't want to be here
don't know where a better 'there' is...

A: want to go to my room
turn on the tv
not even watch it just go away from the world

B: Well, pretty soon we'll have killed everything off
so you won't have to worry!

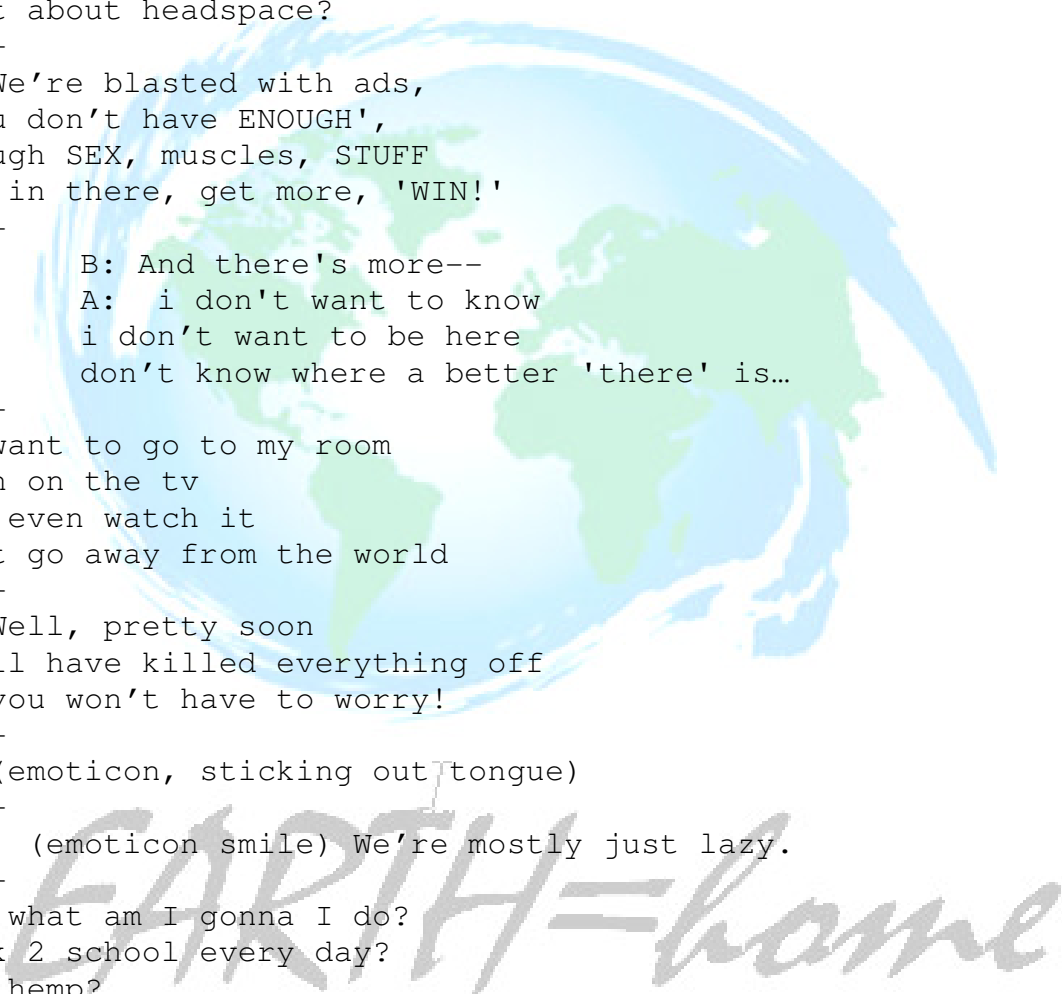

A: (emoticon, sticking out tongue)

B: (emoticon smile) We're mostly just lazy.

A: what am I gonna I do?
walk 2 school every day?
buy hemp?
can't afford to go organic

A: its cheaper to buy coke than water.

B: I miss idealism.

Email 4

A: everything is so overwhelming
you can only laugh or cry

B: I try to see the world as magical
then get panic attacks about global warming

A: i dream of rain that doesn't stop it washes away all our loneliness and need for control it washes away the mess we've made.

A: the world I want to live in there's no faking we're not obsessed with ourselves and its okay
we all live to 100

B: I started cycling to work even in the pouring rain after a while the hills become smaller

A: everybody lives for that one moment when everybody is together
